WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 20. Mysterious Disappearance.— Mr.

William Otto, of South Wheeling, has been missing since last Monday, under circumstances that occasions much uneasiness in the minds of his friends. who fear that he has been foully dealt

On Saturday afternoon Mr. Otto came up town to the livery stable in Centre Wheeling, owned by Messrs, Lohman & Asmos. While there he made a bargain with Mr. Lohman for his interest in the stable, Mr. Asmos lending him four hundred dollars to pay on the contract, leaving a balance of fourteen hundred due Lohman, which Otto was to pay on Monday morning. On Sunday evening he was again at the stable, and on Monday he again came up and started, as he said, the "head of the family" when he takes About noon he was seen in the Merchant's National Bank, by Mr. L. Hertcorn, in company with several other men. Since that time nothing has been and Logan, List & Co., sole proprietors heard of him and no trace of his fur- Wheeling, West Va. ther movements obtained. It is known that he had at his command money to the amount of four or five thousand dollars. No one is aware of any circumstances that could induce him to BOOTS AND SHOES dollars. No one is aware of any cirabsent himself without notice to his friends. The affair certainly looks suspicious and affords ground for apprehensions for his safety. Otto was formerly a member of the Sixth Virginia infantry, and since his discharge has been employed in the glass works of M'CLELLAN & KNOX Hobbs, Brockunier & Co. up to the time of his disappearance.

GOVERNMENT SALE.—An extensive auction sale of Government property, took place yesterday at the Government Warehouse, on the west side of Main street. The assortment was varied and the quantity sufficient to equip a young army. The prices were as good as could be expected, considering the fact that very few of the purchasers have any use for the articles which they bought, Our venerable Uncle, however, would hardly be able to replace them at the prices for which they sold. Several hundred tents, were disposed of at prices varying from four to thirty dollars. We should judge from th number of purchasers that there are a large number of our citizens who have BOOTS AND SHOES HAVE JUST OPENED A STORE UNa partiality for the tented field. One gentleman purchased enough to supply several families. He probably intends to pitch them on the commons and rent PHIA or BALTIMORE. them out. It is thought that house rents will be materially reduced. A large lot of camp kettles and mess pans were sold for a mere song, and the purchaser will not need anything more in that line for the -balance of his natural life. Canteens were sold by the hundred at half a cent a piece. One thous and haversacks were sold for one dollar and seventy-five cents. Drums, fifes. and trumpets went at astonishing lov prices. One of our Main street pro duce and commission merchants, noted for his musical talent, purchased four or five trumpets, and will doubtless regale his friends with a concord of sweet

EVENING MARKETS .- Our statement last week, that the evening markets were to be opened immediately, was not entirely correct. The ordinance establishing the same does not take effect until the 1st of October, after which date the evening arrangement will commence, and is one that we think will prove to be very popular with every ne interested. It will obviate the necessity and inconvenience of rising at an unusual hour of the morning, as peo ple are now compelled to do on market mornings. This will be a very important consideration during the winter, and is alone sufficient to give the evening markets the preference with both come in during the day, make their purchases, dispose of their produce, and be ready to return at the comparison of the compared to the compar and Farmers will not be compelled to convenience.
